6. Online Dispute Resolution

The European Commission provides an online dispute resolution platform at <https://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr>. The service provider is not obliged and not willing to participate in dispute resolution proceedings before a consumer arbitration body.

7. Liability for Content

(1) The service provider is responsible for its own content on these pages in accordance with general laws pursuant to Section 7(1) of the German Digital Services Act (DDG). Pursuant to Sections 8 to 10 DDG, the service provider is not obliged to monitor transmitted or stored third-party information or to investigate circumstances indicating illegal activity.

(2) Obligations to remove or block the use of information under general laws remain unaffected. Liability in this respect can only arise from the moment the service provider obtains knowledge of a concrete infringement. Upon notification of an infringement, the relevant content will be removed without undue delay.

8. Liability for Links

(1) The offering contains links to external websites of third parties, over the contents of which the service provider has no influence. The respective provider or operator is solely responsible for the contents of the linked pages.

(2) The linked pages were checked for possible legal infringements at the time of linking; no unlawful content was discernible at that time. Upon notification of an infringement, the relevant links will be removed without undue delay.

9. Copyright

Content and works created by the service provider on these pages are subject to German copyright law. Reproduction, processing, distribution, and any kind of exploitation outside the limits of copyright law require the written consent of the author.

10. User-Generated Content

The Platform enables users to create their own videos. The respective user is solely responsible for the content of such videos. The service provider assumes no liability for user-generated content.
